United States v. Doe, 15-cr-10269-IT

Addendum to Judgment, Section VIII Additional Basis for the Sentence in this Case

The history and characteristics of the defendant, and the need to reflect the seriousness of the offense, promote respect for the law, afford adequate deterrence, avoid unwarranted disparities all support this sentence. The defendant has been arrested numerous times for drug and related offenses and has given at least 8 aliases. The defendant has received three shorter sentences for drug related offenses, committing the third offense after re-entering the United States after having been removed. Thus, more lenient sentences have not deterred the defendant, conveyed the seriousness of the offenses or promoted respect for the law. The court notes that, even under the currently pending proposed amendments to the Sentencing Guidelines, the defendant's guidelines range would remain the same. Therefore, a sentence within the guidelines range will help to avoid the risk of unwarranted disparities.
